PROJECT MANAGEMENT / TURNKEY

HMT's experienced personnel oversee each phase of turnkey projects, from initial approval to project completion and everything in between. The result is a turnkey project with exceptional safety performance, unequalled quality workmanship, and a full range of unmatched engineering services. In addition, HMT has successfully teamed up with other key suppliers to provide complete turnkey services with just one purchase order. This provides quicker tank turn-around, reduces internal project management, coordinates costs and reduces additional mobilization costs. Additionally, all key suppliers are evaluated thoroughly to insure all client qualification requirements are met.

HMT works with tank owners to develop customized maintenance management programs that are designed to meet specific facility needs and can include any or all of the services HMT provides.
